Dear Christian:

Your acrobatic and body manipulation was a great crowd pleaser. The way you worked the audience into your act was fabulous. Your use of French brought out a nationalistic pride and the audience loved you. Give your son a hug and squeeze and tell him I think his dad is the greatest.

The sleepy little town of Dundas will never be quite the same. Buskingfest came, saw, conquered... and quickly left town but the memories linger on. We are getting a few phone calls about Tom's butt and Alan the teenage heartthrob but over all the reaction has been fabulous and they are gearing up for next year. They are tentatively planning a fire works show for 9:30 on the Sunday night in a park only four blocks from downtown as a finale. This would mean a shift in our hours (noon hour start) and a unique way of parading the crowd from downtown to the park.

The fire show went over well considering the prep time. We are looking for ideas and suggestions to enhance it. As a matter of fact, if you have any suggestions or recommendations send them in.

Sincerely,
Hamilton-Wentworth
